Oswego Commissioners receive State Award from NYSBOE

At the May New York State Board of Elections Annual Conference and Training Session the Oswego Commissioners were awarded a Certificate of Merit for their efforts in Election Inspector training. Out of 57 counties six awards were presented. Since the inception of the award program in 1998 the Oswego Board has won four awards for various election innovations.

New Assembly and Senate Districts are Finalized.

With the re-districting of Oswego County into four Assembly districts it was necessary for the Board to reassign voters to their new districts. This process took several weeks and was completed before the June 18th deadline.
