PUBLIC HEALTH EDUCATOR

EXAMINATION NUMBER: 69580 (Open to the Public)
EXAMINATION DATE: Saturday, April 29, 2017
LAST FILING DATE: Wednesday, March 22, 2017 (Applications will NOT be accepted after this date)
EXAM FEE: $20.00 (CHECK OR MONEY ORDER ONLY) (FEE IS NON-REFUNDABLE)
$10.00 (Oswego County CSEA - CO-OP employees ONLY)

PAY RATE: $20.15 per hour.

JOB DESCRIPTION: This professional position exists in the Preventive Division of the Oswego County Health Department and is responsible for providing and managing community-wide public health education programs that help individuals, families, and health professionals. Responsibilities include participating in the development, review, and implementation of Public Health Emergency Preparedness policies and activities and may also administer fiscal resources for health education and other programs. The work is performed under the general supervision of a Senior Public Health Educator. Supervision is not a function of the position. The incumbent performs related work as required.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS: There are no residency requirements for this exam, however, preference in appointment may be given to legal residents of Oswego County.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Education, specialized background, training and experience.

- A. Graduation from a regionally accredited or NYS registered college or university with a master's degree in public health or health education; OR
- B. Graduation from a regionally accredited or NYS registered college or university with a bachelor's degree in health education, health science, public health, health promotion, community health, or health communications; OR
- C. Graduation from a regionally accredited or NYS registered college or university with a bachelor's degree in education, nursing, epidemiology, wellness and fitness, or nutrition and one (1) year of experience in health education; OR
- D. Graduation from a regionally accredited or NYS registered college or university with a bachelor's degree in marketing, human services, social work or psychology and two (2) years of experience in health education.

* The minimum qualifications for Public Health positions are mandated under New York State Health Code, Rules and Regulations (NYCRR) Title 10, Part 11.

NOTE: Health education experience is defined as the development and implementation of a public health/health education program which entails needs assessment, planning, conducting and evaluating an educational program designed to provide information concerning health topics to the general public or health professionals, or the development of a health education program in a setting that includes an outreach component. Experience limited to only public health counseling, clinical nursing experience, or experience as a science teacher will not be considered qualifying.

SPECIAL REQUIREMENTS: A local public health educator must satisfactorily complete 15 hours of continuing education in health education related topics approved by the New York State Health Department within one (1) year of appointment. Possession of a valid New York State driver's license appropriate to the vehicles operated or otherwise demonstrate their ability to meet the transportation needs of the position.

NOTE: Unless otherwise noted, experience credited towards meeting the minimum qualifications must be paid work experience. Volunteer experience will only be credited if specified on the exam announcement.

SCOPE OF THE WRITTEN EXAM: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

1. Behavioral science concepts related to public health education: A test of basic concepts of sociology and psychology related to the accomplishment of change in the behavior of individuals and groups. The subtest will deal with, but not necessarily be confined to: The characteristics of specific groups and how these variables relate to behavior. The psychological and sociological factors affecting behavior and behavior change: the psychology of learning and related instructional practices; the psychology of motivation; and the dynamics of small groups and group process.

2. Educating and interacting with the public: These questions test for knowledge of techniques used to interact effectively with individuals and/or community groups, to educate or inform them about topics of concern, to publicize or clarify agency programs or policies, to negotiate conflicts or resolve complaints, and to represent one's agency or program in a manner in keeping with good public relations practices. Questions may also cover interacting with others in cooperative efforts of public outreach or service.

3. Planning, implementing, and evaluating health education programs: A test of knowledge of facts, trends, principles, and theories in the area. The subtest will deal with, but not necessarily be confined to: the planning process; program planning; identifying program objectives; identifying target groups; analyzing target groups; determining knowledges, skills, and aptitudes to be developed in target groups; designing and organizing the specific learning; implementing experiences; staffing; program evaluation; and the evaluation of appropriate materials.

4. Preparing written material: These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

5. Principles of educating and training: These questions test for the knowledge and abilities used to provide instruction to individuals and groups in settings typically outside the workplace. Instruction of this sort may be given to members of the public or groups with a specialized interest or concern. The questions address issues such as determining what is to be taught; developing and evaluating instructional plans; developing, using, and evaluating training methods and materials; motivation; learning; interacting with learners; and evaluating the success of instruction.

Use of a calculator is ALLOWED for this exam.

NO TEST GUIDE AVAILABLE – The New York State Department of Civil Service has not prepared a Test Guide for this examination. Test Guides published by the New York State Department of Civil Service are usually targeted to specific, entry-level titles. Test Guides are not provided for every examination. Candidates

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Applications and additional information can be obtained at the Human Resources Department, Oswego County Office Building, 46 East Bridge Street, Oswego, New York 13126, or by calling (315) 349-8209, or on the web at <http://www.oswegocounty.com/humanresources>.
2. Applications postmarked after midnight of the Last Filing Date will not be considered eligible for this examination.
3. Falsification of any part of the "Application for Employment" will result in disqualification and possible legal action. Inquiries may be made as to character and ability and all statements made by candidates are subject to verification.
4. Applicants must answer every question on the application form. Incomplete applications will be disapproved.
5. Accepted candidates will be notified when and where to appear for exam. None will be admitted to the examination without the official admission notice. If an application is rejected, due notice will be sent. The department does not make formal acknowledgment of the receipt of an application.
6. If you have not received your notice to appear for the exam three days before the exam date, call (315) 349-8209.
7. If special arrangements for testing are required (i.e. religious observance, disability), submit written request describing your needs with the application form.
8. Unless otherwise noted, candidates are permitted to use quiet, hand-held, solar or battery powered calculators. Devices with typewriter keyboards, Spell Checkers, Personal Digital Assistants, Address Books, Language Translators, Dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.
9. Active service members, veterans or disabled veterans desiring to claim additional credit may submit an "Application for Veteran's Credit" prior to the establishment of the eligible list. Forms are available upon request at the Human Resources Department.
10. Military Service members on active duty on the exam date may request a military makeup exam by calling (315) 349-8209. Members on active duty or discharged during the exam filing period may apply for the exam up to ten days before the exam date.
11. Per Section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty are entitled to receive ten additional credits on an exam which may result in an original appointment in the municipality where the deceased parent served. Candidates eligible for additional credit should indicate this on their exam application.
12. Candidates who fail the examination, or who fail to appear for the examination as scheduled, will be eliminated from further consideration.
13. Under specific circumstances an alternate test date may be arranged in accordance with established policy. Your request and verifiable documentation should be submitted at least one week prior to the test date or in case of an emergency no later than 5:00 p.m. on the next business day following the test.
14. This examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of exams will apply to this examination.
15. Unless otherwise specified, the final rank order of the eligible list established as a result of the exam will be determined on the basis of the scores received on the written test, plus veterans and seniority credits where appropriate.
16. The eligible list will remain in force for at least one (1) year and may be extended by the Director of Human Resources for a maximum of four (4) years. Changing conditions may make it necessary to certify future vacancies at higher or lower salaries than those announced.
17. Special Requirement for Appointment in School Districts and CITI: Per Chapter 180 of the Laws of 2000, and by Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, to be employed in a position designated by a school district or CITI as involving direct contact with students, a clearance for employment from the State Education Department is required.
18. In accordance with the Child Abuse Prevention Act of 1985, candidates for appointment to Oswego County government positions which involve regular and substantial contact with children will be required to complete a State Central Register of Child Abuse and Maltreatment clearance form. Failure to complete this form may result in decertification of your name from this eligible list for appointments in Oswego County.
19. Applicants may be required to undergo a State and national criminal history background investigation, which will include a fingerprint check, to determine suitability for appointment. Failure to meet the standards for the background investigation may result in disqualification.
