JOB DESCRIPTION: Supervises inmates and maintains discipline in the County Jail during an assigned shift; performs related duties as required. Under immediate supervision, employees are responsible for the enforcement of rules and regulations governing security, conduct, discipline, safety and the general well being of inmates in the County Jail. Employees must be alert to possibilities of emergency situations arising and exercise sound judgment when problems occur. Work is typically performed in areas where Correction Officers are in direct contact with inmates and requires sensitivity and communication skills. Work is assigned by a ranking officer and reviewed through inspection and report submission. Performs a variety of physically challenging tasks, in difficult or hazardous settings around the clock and in all kinds of weather conditions. Officers may walk or stand for extended periods, be required to run and to defend themselves or others, using unarmed self-defense techniques, striking weapons or firearms. Correction Officers may be exposed to noxious fumes, odors or disagreeable sights in the performance of their duties.

RESIDENCY REQUIREMENTS: Candidates must be legal residents of Oswego County for a minimum of four (4) months immediately preceding the date of the exam.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS:

Education, specialized background, training and experience.

Education: Graduation from high school or possession of an equivalency diploma recognized by the New York State Education Department.

Age: Candidates must be at least nineteen (19) years of age by February 3, 2018. Eligibility for appointment begins at age twenty (20).

SPECIAL REQUIREMENT:

Citizenship: New York State Law requires all Peace Officers, including Correction Officers, to be United States citizens at time of appointment.

Drivers License: Candidates must be eligible for appropriate class New York State driver's license. Possession of the license is required at the time of appointment.

Training: Candidates must successfully complete Division of Criminal Justice Services training curriculum during the probationary period. This training may include but is not limited to the following areas: weapons/firearms, expandable baton, pepper spray and use of force/deadly physical force. Candidates must qualify and maintain proficiency with department issued firearms.

MEDICAL REQUIREMENTS: Your medical condition will be evaluated to ensure that you are able to perform the duties of this position. Upon a conditional offer of appointment, there will be a medical examination. For a complete statement of the medical standards, send a letter of request to the Oswego County Human Resources Department at 46 East Bridge Street, Oswego, NY 13126 or e-mail a request to: humanresources@oswegocounty.com.

BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION: A thorough background investigation will be done to determine suitability for appointment. Conviction of a felony will bar and conviction of a misdemeanor or other offense may bar candidates from examination and appointment. Candidates may be required to participate in psychological and/or polygraph testing.

SCOPE OF THE WRITTEN EXAM: A written test designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

1. Applying written information in a correctional services setting: These questions test for the ability to read, interpret, and apply rules, regulations, directives, written narratives and other related material. You will be required to read a set of information, and to appropriately apply the information to situations similar to those typically experienced in a correctional services setting. All the information needed to answer the questions asked concerning the situations presented is contained in the rules, regulations, etc., which are cited.

2. Observing and recalling facts and information: These questions test for the ability to observe and recall information presented. You will be presented with information describing or depicting prison scenes or other facts. You will have a short time to observe and memorize the information before it is collected by the monitor. You will then be asked to recall specific details about the information presented.

3. Preparing written material: These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

4. Understanding and interpreting written material: These questions test for the ability to understand and interpret written material. You will be presented with brief reading passages and will be asked questions about the passages. You should base your answers to the questions only on what is presented in the passages and not on what you may happen to know about the topic.

Use of a calculator is PROHIBITED for this exam.

TEST GUIDE: The New York State Department of Civil Service has published an Entry-Level Correction Officer Series Test Guide intended for candidate preparation use for this particular examination. This Test Guide contains important test related information as well as sample questions similar to the questions that will be used in this written test.

The New York State Department of Civil Service is making a copy of this Test Guide and other related information available on its Website at <http://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/localtestguides.cfm>. In addition, a copy of this Test Guide is available upon request from the Oswego County Human Resources Department or may be downloaded from the web at <http://www.oswegocounty.com/humanresources/studyguides.html>.

PUBLIC SERVICE LOAN FORGIVENESS: College graduates with student loans may be eligible to have part of their loan paid for after being employed in a full-time position at Oswego County. Additional information is available at <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/repay-loans/forgiveness-cancellation/public-service>.

EXAM FEES: A non-refundable fee of $25.00/$12.50 is required for each separate examination for which you apply. The required fee must accompany your application. Please refer to the "Application for Exam or Employment" for information about fee waiver. Write the name of the exam(s) on your check or money order payable to Oswego County and submit the check or money order with your application. Cash will not be accepted. A $20.00 charge will be imposed on checks returned for insufficient funds. You are urged to compare your qualifications carefully with the requirements for admission and file only for those examinations for which you are clearly qualified. No refunds will be made to applicants who are disqualified, fail to appear, or if application is received after the last file date.

MULTIPLE EXAMS SCHEDULED FOR THE SAME DAY (CROSS-FILING):

- If you have applied to take exam(s) announced by another jurisdiction (county, city, state) scheduled on the same day as this exam, you must make arrangements (no later than two weeks before the date of the exam) to take all exams at one test site.
- If you have applied for both State and Local (county/city) government examinations, you must take all your examinations at the State examination center. You must notify the local government civil service agencies with whom you have filed an application of your intent to take both a State and Local exam on the same day. You will be advised by letter when and where to report for your examinations. You must bring all admission letters for all exams with you to the State site.
- If you have applied for multiple Local exams you must notify all local government civil service agencies with whom you have filed an application of the test site at which you wish to take your examination. For Oswego County examinations complete a "Cross Filer Notification" form, available at the Oswego County Human Resources Department or online at <http://www.oswegocounty.com/humanresources/forms.html>, and send to Oswego County Human Resources Department, 46 East Bridge Street, Oswego, NY 13126 or FAX to (315) 349-8254 or call (315) 349-8209. If you are taking multiple exams on the same date with the Oswego County Human Resources Department only, you do not have to file a cross filer form.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

1. Applications and additional information can be obtained at the Human Resources Department, Oswego County Office Building, 46 East Bridge Street, Oswego, New York 13126, or by calling (315) 349-8209, or on the web at <http://www.oswegocounty.com/humanresources>.
2. Applications postmarked after midnight of the Last Filing Date will not be considered eligible for this examination.
3. Falsification of any part of the "Application for Employment" will result in disqualification and possible legal action. Inquiries may be made as to character and ability and all statements made by candidates are subject to verification.
4. Applicants must answer every question on the application form. Incomplete applications will be disapproved.
5. Accepted candidates will be notified when and where to appear for exam. None will be admitted to the examination without the official admission notice. If an application is rejected, due notice will be sent. The department does not make formal acknowledgment of the receipt of an application.
6. If you have not received your notice to appear for the exam three days before the exam date, call (315) 349-8209.
7. If special arrangements for testing are required (i.e. religious observance, disability), submit written request describing your needs with the application form.
8. Unless otherwise noted, candidates are permitted to use quiet, hand-held, solar or battery powered calculators. Devices with typewriter keyboards, Spell Checkers, Personal Digital Assistants, Address Books, Language Translators, Dictionaries, or any similar devices are prohibited.
9. Active service members, veterans or disabled veterans desiring to claim additional credit may submit an "Application for Veteran's Credit" prior to the establishment of the eligible list. Forms are available upon request at the Human Resources Department.
10. Military Service members on active duty on the exam date may request a military makeup exam by calling (315) 349-8209. Members on active duty or discharged during the exam filing period may apply for the exam up to ten days before the exam date.
11. Per Section 85-a of the Civil Service Law, children of firefighters and police officers killed in the line of duty are entitled to receive ten additional credits on an exam which may result in an original appointment in the municipality where the deceased parent served. Candidates eligible for additional credit should indicate this on their exam application.
12. Candidates who fail the examination, or who fail to appear for the examination as scheduled, will be eliminated from further consideration.
13. Under specific circumstances an alternate test date may be arranged in accordance with established policy. Your request and verifiable documentation should be submitted at least one week prior to the test date or in case of an emergency no later than 5:00 p.m. on the next business day following the test.
14. This examination is being prepared and rated by the New York State Department of Civil Service in accordance with Section 23-2 of the Civil Service Law. The provisions of the New York State Civil Service Rules and Regulations dealing with the rating of exams will apply to this examination.
15. Unless otherwise specified, the final rank order of the eligible list established as a result of the exam will be determined on the basis of the scores received on the written test, plus veterans and seniority credits where appropriate.
16. The eligible list will remain in force for at least one (1) year and may be extended by the Director of Human Resources for a maximum of four (4) years. Changing conditions may make it necessary to certify future vacancies at higher or lower salaries than those announced.
17. Special Requirement for Appointment in School Districts and CITI: Per Chapter 180 of the Laws of 2000, and by Regulations of the Commissioner of Education, to be employed in a position designated by a school district or CITI as involving direct contact with students, a clearance for employment from the State Education Department is required.
18. In accordance with the Child Abuse Prevention Act of 1985, candidates for appointment to Oswego County government positions which involve regular and substantial contact with children will be required to complete a State Central Register of Child Abuse and Maltreatment clearance form. Failure to complete this form may result in decertification of your name from this eligible list for appointments in Oswego County.
19. Applicants may be required to undergo a State and national criminal history background investigation, which will include a fingerprint check, to determine suitability for appointment. Failure to meet the standards for the background investigation may result in disqualification.
